

Internet/Cell Phone Safety 101

Thursday, September 27
Crystal Community Center

7:00-8:30pm
4800 Douglas Drive N

This is a timely and important presentation and we would like to invite all adults and youth to take part in a discussion about internet and cell phone safety.

*Register with the Crystal Recreation Department at 763-531-0052
Registration is Free*

A $5 voluntary donation per family will be accepted to support the efforts of the Jacob Wetterling Resource Center.

Lead Presenter Alison Feigh is a subject matter expert on the topic of child and teen safety. Alison has done extensive media interviews including CNN, Fox News, and local news stations. Her positive, accessible personal safety messages are featured in her children's books "On Those Runaway Days" and "I Can Play It Safe." Both titles were released nationally through Free Spirit Publishing in 2008. The high-energy presentations that Alison is known for are fed by her passion for working with children and youth Accompanying Alison, will be Lieutenant Dave Oyaas and Detective Jason Nolan with the Crystal Police Department. Lieutenant Oyaas is the Commander of Investigations for the City of Crystal with 22 years experience and has worked closely with internet crime cases in partnership with Internet Crimes against Children Task Force. Detective Nolan is an investigator and has been in law enforcement for 13 years.

"Just like a family car, a family computer is a tool that requires limits, supervision, and knowledge in order for all of the users to make good decisions while online. When used correctly, the Internet can be a wonderful tool to learn about the world that surrounds us"

www.jwrc.org

This event is sponsored by the Jacob Wetterling Resource Center and the Crystal Police Department